Winning bidders are solely responsible for their own removal. Bidder is responsible for bringing all tools, trailers, hand truck, pallet jacks, materials, supplies and man-power necessary to remove Lots within the 30 minutes allocated for removal. Some items may be wrapped and palatalized, and/or VERY HEAVY. Brazoria County DOES NOT ship or provide transportation or loading services for buyers to remove their merchandise. Seller offers ZERO assistance.

If you are sending a third-party person, transportation service or movers to pick up any purchased lot, Bidder must email Brazoria County an Authorization of Release. The authorization MUST be received 1 business day before pick-up. Include the following information in the letter of authorization:

- Name of the bidder (Must match name on Paid Invoice), signed and dated
- List of the lots to be picked up.
- Front and back copy of bidder's driver's license.
- Name/contact information of the third party person.
- If applicable - Advise Brazoria County to mail the title or release title to third party (See "REGARDING PAPERWORK" section for additional information).

"Third Party" MUST have a valid photo ID or they will not be allowed to take any items.

Bidder is responsible for informing third party person or transport company of the pick-up schedule and terms listed per auction

All lots purchased have a FINAL removal deadline of Thursday, December 3 @ 3:00pm.

Lots Remaining After Removal Deadline

This includes appointments missed and not rescheduled by the final removal time frame

If lots are not removed by the deadline, the ownership of the merchandise will revert back to the Brazoria County to dispose of or re-sell the item at their discretion. A refund will NOT be provided back to the Bidder (partial or whole).

Unclaimed Lots

This includes bidders who have NOT responded to emails, phone calls, and general communication to schedule an appointment and remove purchased lots

If lots are not removed by the deadline, and a consistent good faith effort is not made to retrieve them, the ownership of the merchandise will revert back to the Brazoria County to dispose of or re-sell the item at their discretion. A refund will NOT be provided back to the Bidder (partial or whole).
