INSTRUCTIONS FOR ELECTRONIC TRANSFER TAX DECLARATIONS IN GEORGIA

In Georgia, you must file a PT-61 Form (transfer tax declaration) with the deed. You must fill it out at <http://www.gsccca.org/efiling/pt610/>.

In order to fill out the form, you will need to collect from both the buyer and the seller their mailing addresses and permission to file the form on their behalf. The buyer should provide the address that they want their tax bill to be sent to. You will also have to fill in the purchase price of the land and tax is automatically calculated ($.10 per $100.00 of consideration or any part thereof). The website also has all exemptions from the tax available by a drop down window. Please forward a printout of the confirmation form with the deed as we must present it with the deed and payment of the tax at the time of recording the deed. Do not write on the confirmation form or the Clerk will refuse it.
